

Purple Group:

Let me guess... Adults do not have teen-volunteers, so they would need to expedite themselves to the classes on their own. There is no world like "A MUST" - you're welcome to join any class you want or feel free to just wonder around and have time on Waterfront. At any time, you may withdraw your children from the classes to go to the waterfront with you to swim, ride a boat, etc. Waterfront is not a part of the schedule, we aim it to be open from 11 to 6 on Saturday, and from 10 to 3 on Sunday. Boats will be available, or just swim, or just enjoy! Btw, Sauna is for the entire day also, not a specific time. We just reserve the right to offer Sauna to Teen-Volunteers during the night hours (after 9 pm) One more thing: All classes for adults are in Russian. Or, most of them.

Friday: No separation by groups.

- 6:00 pm – arrival begins. Please, look at the map and try to find your building ahead of time. We hope we will be able to provide Volunteers to meet and greet you and direct you to your place. If you cannot find anyone and your place, then go directly to the dining hall, or grab anyone you see with the green bracelet on hand so they can point you to the right direction.
- 7:30 pm - Shabbat-Express w/Nikol and Teens at the Beit Knesset (Beit Midrash complex)
- 8:00 pm – 9:00 pm - Shabbat Dinner (Chadar Ohel – Dining Hall)
- 9:00 – 10:00 pm – take your time to put your children to sleep if they are young. Make sure you understand that if you won't find anyone to watch your child, you cannot simply leave. Our Teens are available, so offer them to baby sit – at your own expense and responsibility. If you can, or if your children are not that young – let them hang out and enjoy the rest of the program (same is for Saturday Night)
- 10:00 pm and up:
  - Alik Alabin Concert at the Adult Lounge
  - Drinks (BYOB), games at the Adult Lounge (after the concert)
  - Camp Fire w/Ksenia P. and CO – Main Campfire between the Adult Lounge and the Dining Hall (Marshmallow, Potatoes pick up from the Dining hall) – after Alik's concert
  - Important!!! The last one to put campfire completely off!!!!!!

Saturday: Separation by groups starts at the Dining Hall, right after the breakfast. Do not leave after breakfast, until you meet your Teen Volunteers. As an oldest group, you're not required to be in the group, you may wonder on your own (as long, as your parents agree for that), and join classes as you please.
